FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 325 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 PARTS CONSIST OF
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron (Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)	36.80
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.90

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

OBJECTION I.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.

SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.

THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

IMPORTANT SALE.

I WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION IN THE Town of Henderson, on Tuesday the 12th. February next, valuable situated within one mile of the Town of Henderson, on a never failing stream of water, which affords sufficient power to attach a Cotton Factory, if purchaser should so desire. These Mills are new, and in excellent working order; they having been built last year. Have been in successful operation for the past five months, during which time the Saw Mill alone has yielded an income of about five thousand dollars.

Manufacturing and Saw Mills;

I will sell with Mill, one hundred and fifty acres of heavy timbered land, said timber of superior quality. Also the timber off of two hundred and fifty acres of land, all of which is adjoining the Mill property.

Will be sold at the same time, two good yoke of Oxen, one Log Cart, a splendid pair of Mules, one two-horse Wagon and Harness, a superior lot of Hogs, of improved stock and many other articles too numerous to mention, including one sett Blacksmith tools.

Also, at the same time and place, two very valuable situated in the Town of Henderson.

Houses and Lots,

I feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the above property, as valuable as any of the kind in the State.—Capitalists desirous of investing in property that will pay, can do no better than examine this property and buy.

Terms made known on day of sale.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel; and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools, located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have; goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

JAMES M. TOWLES,

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,

BY WHICH

Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothchilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhœa, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ——, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend to her its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hopes of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, en detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases, known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war precludes the idea, of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.,) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

THE AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefitted by the use of these Bitters.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Monday Evening, Feb. 11, 1867.

The Plan of Adjustment.

We have given a brief history of this plan, and have simply explained its features, without commending it, as a whole, to the acceptance of the Legislature or the people. We have declared our readiness, personally, to accept it as a final adjustment of all our difficulties; but it does not come to us in that shape, and hence it must be considered wholly on its merits.

The papers by the last mails both North and South, manifest a general opposition on various grounds to the proposed plan. Democratic letter writers and papers at the North, advise that the South stand still—that the South cannot hope for success in any proposition which it makes—while others intimate that the plan proposed is such a surrender of principle, the South cannot submit to it. The plan of course finds no favor with ultra radical papers either North or South, nor with the Republican or Democratic parties in Congress as such. The papers of Virginia and in this State, generally, express, for various reasons, opposition to the measure. There is, however, among gentlemen and papers North and South, an expression favorable to some action and speedy action too, in view of the suggestions of Mr. Wade, of Ohio, and Chief Justice Chase, as well as the dangers of ultra action on the part of Congress.

We have already stated that the friends of the measure and those who prepared it, did not aim to please themselves, to engraft their own views, or the views and wishes of any party.—They did not expect ultra men, either North or South to favor it, nor to be able to meet the views precisely of moderate or conservative men North or South. But they felt that something should be done and done promptly, to indicate the feeling and purpose of the South, before ultra action was taken by the Congress; and as no one would move officially in the matter, as true friends of the peace and prosperity of the South and of the Union, they, determined, on their own personal responsibility, after full conversation with Northern and Southern men of all shades of opinion, to prepare the beforementioned plan, as one which might lead, if acted upon in the true spirit of compromise and promptly, to some scheme of adjustment.

Objections are manifestly uttered against the plan, because of the parties concerned in getting it up. This is manifestly unkind and unjust. Whatever objections may be alleged to the former views of these gentlemen, should have no bearing upon the question. Is the proposition feasible, bearable or does it possess elements, upon which may be based a plan of adjustment, honorable to all parties? is the question. Of the gentlemen concerned in the getting up of the plan, we have no hesitancy in saying, that we regard them as honest men, devoted to the peace and prosperity of the Union. They were never Confederates, politically speaking, except Gov. Orr; but they have always been Union men, yet devoted sympathisers in the peace, harmony and prosperity of the Southern people. Who can doubt it?—They embrace, Gov. Orr, of S. C., Gov. Parsons, of Ala., Gov. Marvin, of Fla., Judge Jones, of Ark., Gov. Sharkey, of Miss., and Messrs. Boyden and Hanes, of N. C. Govs. Parsons and Sharkey, were at first decided against any movement on the part of the South. Gov. Sharkey was for some time immovable, but both of them, after full consultation with gentlemen of all opinions, became and are now earnest advocates of Southern legislative action, and we have seen an endorsement of the plan from both of these gentlemen, under their own signatures.

Now while we have strong objections to the plan, and could only be induced to give it our sanction as a finality, or as a means leading to that end, yet we are satisfied, that the time has come when the Southern people can no longer be indifferent spectators of passing events, or totally inactive, under the threatening exigencies of the times. We believe, that it behooves every true Southern man, and every real friend of the South and the Union, to rouse himself and do what he can, to contribute to the early settlement and adjustment of our difficulties, in a way safest for the South and the Union, on terms honorable to all.

We are therefore, decidedly in favor of an early, careful investigation of this as well as any other scheme of adjustment, which the Legislature of North Carolina believes it ought to adopt. And I take the liberty of suggesting to the General Assembly the propriety of holding a session of the Senate and House of Commons jointly, and the invitation of Messrs. Brown, Boyden, Leach and Hanes to address them upon the subject.

P. S. Since writing the above, we are glad to see, that the Senate, to day, referred the resolutions offered by Dr. Speed, of Pasquotank, to the committee on Federal Relations, and ordered them to be printed. We would add another word. The intense activity of the "Southern loyalists," many of whom we regard as the worst men in the country both to the South and the Union, and the activity of Messrs. Stevens, Boutwell, Ashley and Shalabarger and such like in Congress, ought to bestir the true Southern Union men of the country, to exert themselves to check and defeat their sinister designs.

The Situation.

The late mails have furnished no additional information in regard to national affairs, or indeed any matter of interest. Our telegram gives an outline of what Congress is doing.

The Relief Bill.

We give to day a copy of this bill as it passed both Houses last Saturday. It has been enrolled but not ratified, and will not be until to-morrow.

The Amendment Rejected by Delaware.

DOVER, DEL., February 6.—The House this morning rejected the constitutional amendment by a strict party vote—15 to 6.

The bill allowing negroes to testify and making their punishment the same as whites, was defeated by a party vote.

SCARCITY OF LABOR.—There are now in this city some dozen planters who want from five to twenty five farm laborers each, and who find the greatest difficulty in procuring any. They offer good wages and good quarters; with steady work for the spring, summer and fall, but to no avail. We understand, too, that there is a gentleman here who wants a large number of hands for Texas, who offers transportation and support till they arrive there and then good wages and constant employment, and who has succeeded in getting but one man. And yet there are perhaps thousands of strong, lazy negroes loafing about this neighborhood. What should be done with them?—New. Commercial.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

[SATURDAY'S PROCEEDINGS CONCLUDED.]

ON THE STAY LAW.

Mr. Crawford, of Rowan, asked the yeas and nays on the passage of the bill.

The yeas and nays were ordered, and the bill passed its second reading, as follows:

YEAS.—Messrs. Allen, Ashworth, Autry, Barden, Beasley, Black, Blair, Blythe, Boyd, Bowe, Brown, Bryson, Carson, Chadwick, Clark, Collins, Dargan, Davidson, Durham, Everett, Farrow, Freeman, Gambill, Garrett, Garris, Godwin, Gorham, Granberry, Guess, Henderson, Henry, Hinnant, Holderby, Horton, of Watauga, Horton, of Wilkes, Houston, Jenkins, of Granville, Jones, Jordan, Kelsey, Kenan, Kendall, Latham, of Washington, Lee, Lyon, Lutterloh, May, McClammy, McGeogan, McKay, Moore, of Chatham, Moore, of Hertford, Morehead, Morton, Murrill, Neal, Patton, Perry, of Wake, Richardson, Rountree, Ross, Scoggin, Scott, Shelton, Simpson, Smith of Duplin, Smith, of Guilford, Stone, Stubbefth, Trull, Umstead, Vestal, Walker, Waugh, Whitfield, Wilson, of Perquimans, Williams, of Pitt, Williams, of Yancey, Womble, York—80.

NAYS.—Messrs. Baker, Clements, Cowan, Crawford, of Macon, Crawford, of Rowan, Harper, Hodnett, Hutchison, Martin, McNair, Peebles, Perry, of Carteret, Reinhardt, Roseboro, Stevenson, Westmoreland—16.

On voting, Mr. Patton stated that he doubted the constitutionality of any Stay Law, but being in favor of relief, was willing to leave that question to the decision of the Courts.

Mr. Peebles, on voting, asked that the following protest be placed on the journal:

I acknowledge the necessity and justice of relief to the people, and would cheerfully vote for the bill, if amended as I proposed. But as the bill stands, it is the honest conviction of my heart, that, instead of affording relief, it will cause three fourths of the honest debtors of North Carolina to be sold out of house and home, within eighteen months. And in the name of my constituents I protest against it.

Mr. Hodnett addressed the House in opposition to the bill. The bill then passed its third reading, and was sent to the Senate for concurrence in the House amendment.

Mr. McNair, from the committee on Corporations reported favorably on the bill to incorporate the Wadesboro Savings Institution.

Mr. Davidson introduced a bill to make valid the official acts of justices of the peace during the war.

Mr. Hutchison, a resolution appropriating ten thousand dollars for the encouragement of immigration and the influx of capital to the State.

Mr. Stevenson moved to reconsider the bill extending the corporate limits of the town of Elizabeth City, and then that the motion to reconsider lie on the table. The motion prevailed.

A messenger from the Senate announced the concurrence of that body in House amendments to the bill transferring the Land Scrip to the University.

The House then adjourned.

SENATE.

MONDAY Morning, Feb. 11.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. Covington, a petition from citizens of Union county, protesting against the appointment of J. D. Williams as Justice of the Peace of said county and on motion of Mr. Covington, it was referred to the Judiciary committee.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Cunningham, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill to increase the fees of the inspectors of naval stores in the city of Wilmington, recommended that it do not pass.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was refered a bill relative to Clerks issuing marriage license, reported back a substitute for the same.

A message was received from the House proposing to raise a Joint Select committee on the subject of sine die adjournment; also a resolution proposing that both Houses meet at 10 o'clock, both of which were concurred in.

RESOLUTIONS AND BILLS.

Mr. Cowles, a resolution proposing to print 20 copies of the Stay Law for each member of the General Assembly. Adopted.

Mr. Hall, a resolution in favor of Edmund Bradford, referred to the committee on Finance.

Mr. Hall, a bill to incorporate the Wilmington Hook and Ladder Company, referred to the committee on Corporations.

On motion of Mr. Adams, the rules were suspended and the bill to amend an act to incorporate the trustees of the Greensboro' Female College was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Clark, the rules were suspended and the bill to amend an act relative to negroes and persons of color was taken up, and on motion of Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, it was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Forbes, the rules were suspended and the bill authorizing executors and administrators of insolvent estates to settle the same pro rata, was taken up and on motion of Mr. Paschall, it was referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

A message was received from the House proposing to print five copies of the Stay Law for each member of the General Assembly; on motion of Mr. Cowles it was laid on the table.

CONSOLIDATION OF RAILROADS.

Bill to consolidate the Atlantic & N. C., North Carolina and the Western N. C. Railroad Companies, having been made the special order for 12 o'clock, was taken up. Mr. Love offered sundry amendments, which were agreed to. He then presented a communication from Gov. Morehead, addressed to the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, some time since, which was read. Mr. Love urged the passage of the bill, that the same scheme had resulted in much good to other States, and he believed it would be of immense benefit to the private Stockholders as well as those of the State.

Messrs. Wilson, Hall and Speed opposed the bill, raised a constitutional question that the object of this bill could not be accomplished by a majority vote of the Stockholders, as it was inconsistent with the present charter. If the Legislature pass this bill, it would be a direct instruction to the State proxy to vote for this measure, thereby overshadowing completely the interests of the private Stockholders.

The question recurring on the passage of the bill, on motion of Mr. Harris, of Rutherford, the ayes and nays were called and the bill was rejected.

Mr. Speed offered a resolution relative to the subject of the reconstruction plan recommended by Southern men.

On motion of Mr. Johnston, it was ordered to be printed and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations.

Dr. Speed, in presenting this preamble and resolution, upon Federal Relations, said that he alone was responsible for them. He drew them, and presented them upon his own responsibility. He had patiently waited to see if no one would move in the matter. The session was rapidly coming to its close, and he thought some expression of the opinion of this General Assembly ought to be made, that would strengthen the hands of our Northern and Administration friends, if we have any. He should not indicate his own opinion now; he would express himself at the proper time if necessary. The resolution was in the possession of the Senate. He should make no motion at present, in regard to it.

A message was received from the House proposing to go into the election of a Judge of the special Court of Wilmington on to-morrow. O. P. Meares in nomination from the House. Concurred in.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill making provision for the payment of the State bonds now due, and the interest on the debt of the State. Messrs. Berry and Wiggins urged the passage of this bill, and held that these notes would be taken at par: they had been so in South Carolina and would be so here. This debt must be paid, and this is the best method proposed for doing it. Mr. Hall opposed the bill; his great objection to it was that he believed it would be the means of driving out of the State other circulation.—Mr. Gash favored the principle of the bill, but could not vote for it unless it was amended to suit his views. Pending its discussion,

On motion of Mr. Cowles, the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

MONDAY, February 11, 1867

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Messrs. Rogers and Williams of Martin were allowed to record their votes in favor of the bill (passed on Saturday) "to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein." Mr. Richardson, from the committee on the Judiciary, reported back, unfavorably, a bill to extend the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace.

Mr. Waugh introduced resolutions to raise a joint select committee on the subject of adjournment; and to change the hour for the daily meeting of the two Houses. These were adopted and sent to the Senate for concurrence. (The latter proposes that the two Houses meet hereafter at 10 o'clock A. M. daily.)

Mr. Allen introduced a bill to amend section 21 chapter 34, Revised Code.

Resolutions heretofore introduced, to hold Evening sessions and to restrict debate, were read and laid on the table.

ON PRIVATE CALENDAR.

On motion of Mr. Cowan the Private Calendar was taken up.

The following bills and resolutions passed 2nd, and 3rd, readings under a suspension of the rules: viz; bills to incorporate the Newbern Memorial Association, the Wilmington Manufacturing Company, the New Market Foundry and Manufacturing Company, St. Phillips Episcopal Singing Society, Jerusalem Lodge No. 95, Free and Accepted Masons, Tuckasegee Gold and Copper Mining Company, the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Wilmington and Rockford Male and Female Seminary, in Surry County.

A resolution in favor of Jacob Siler, a resolution in favor of Horton S. Reeves, a bill in favor of the legal representatives of Wm. E. Mann, late sheriff of Pasquotank county, a bill to incorporate Wilson Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons; a bill to authorize the formation of the English and American Wool and Vine growing, Mining and Manufacturing Company; to incorporate Carolina Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons; to incorporate Table Rock Seminary, Burke county; to incorporate the Merchant and Planters, Mutual Benefit Company; to establish the dividing line between the towns of Salem and Winston; to amend the charter of the Bingham Gold Mining Company; to incorporate the Hibernian Benevolent Society of the city of Wilmington; to incorporate Lexington Mining Company; to incorporate the Fayetteville Street Railway Company; to incorporate the Wilmington Institute, and to incorporate the Wadesboro Savings Institution, severally passed second and third readings.

Sundry private bills and resolutions for the relief of Sheriffs, &c., were laid on the table on second reading.

A message from the Senate announced its concurrence in House amendments to the Stay Law.

On motion of Mr. McClammy a message was sent to the Senate, proposing that the two Houses proceed to the election of a Judge for the criminal court of New Hanover county, at 11½ o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

The nomination of O. P. Meares for that position was made by Mr. Cowan, and accompanied the message. The Senate subsequently concurred.

The Penitentiary Bill was postponed on motion of Mr. Kenan, and made a special order for Thursday next.

Mr. Farrow (by leave) introduced a bill to repeal "an act to establish a board of Commissioners of navigation for the post of Ocracocke, Hatteras Inlet and its waters."

Mr. Holderby; a bill in regard to the Norfolk and Great Western railroad company.

Mr. Baker; a bill to incorporate the Town Fork Coal and Petroleum company.

The House refused concurrence in a message from the Senate proposing to print twenty copies of the Stay Law for each member of Assembly.

The following engrossed resolutions and bills had their first reading, viz:

A resolution in favor of the public Librarian; a resolution in favor of Mrs. P. P. Dick; a bill to incorporate the Board of Trade of the City of Newbern, and a bill to change the name of Wayne Female College.

ON PUBLIC CALENDAR.

A bill to authorize a revisal of the Statute laws of the State; a bill to amend sec. 52, chap. 69, Revised Code; a bill in relation to set off; a bill giving debtors whose lands have been sold under execution the right of redemption; a bill to repeal sec. 2, chap. 34, Revised Code; and a bill to authorize administrators to pay for the schooling of minor heirs; were severally read the second time and laid on the table.

A bill to amend sec. 12, chap. 52, Revised Code, and a bill to incorporate Pythagoras Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons, passed its second reading.

The House then adjourned.

THE STAY LAW.

AN ACT

To change the Jurisdiction of the Courts and the Rules of Pleading Therein.

SECTION 1st. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all warrants issued by a Justice of the Peace in civil cases, shall not be returnable within twelve months after the execution of the same, before some Justice of the Peace for the county.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace, shall extend to one hundred dollars, principal money, on all bonds, bills, promissory notes or accounts stated, and shall extend to sixty dollars principal money, upon accounts for goods, wares and merchandise sold and delivered or for work and labor done, or for specific articles, and all balances of sixty dollars and under, due on such last mentioned debts or demands, and on all judgments rendered thereon, and on all forfeitures and penalties not exceeding one hundred dollars: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to take from the Courts the jurisdiction in cases of less than one hundred dollars, upon which writs have been issued prior to the ratification of this act.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That all warrants issued by a justice of the peace, for any debt or demand within his jurisdiction, according to the provisions of the above section: Provided, Said debt or demand is due upon any contract, whether by bond or note or liquidated account, or any parol agreement made or entered into, and due prior to the 1st day of May 1865, shall not be returnable for trial, within twelve months after the execution of the same, and at the return of the same, if the defendant or defendants shall pay to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, or to the officer executing the warrant, one tenth of the principal and interest, and all costs that may have accrued thereon, he, she or they, may have twelve months longer to plead, at the end of which time being again notified of the time and place of trial, if the defendant or defendants shall pay one fifth of the principal, interest and costs, he, she, or they shall have twelve months longer to plead, at the end of which time, if the defendant or defendants shall pay one half of the residue of said claim, he or they shall have twelve months longer to plead, at the end of which time the plaintiff shall have judgment for the remainder: Provided, that executions on justices' judgments on debts contracted prior to May 1st, 1865, already rendered, shall be stayed for twelve months from the date of the ratification of this act.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That on all debts contracted since the first day of May, 1865, and all warrants issuing for the same, shall be returned and tried according to the provisions of the Revised Code, chapter sixty-two, (62), and the remedy in all such cases shall be the same as in 1860.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all writs in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, issued to Fall Term 1866, or Spring Term 1867, of the Superior Court, shall be returnable to Spring Term 1868, and all of said actions now pending in the Superior Court shall be continued to Spring Term 1868: Provided, That the Sheriff shall not be allowed in any case to levy execution before the first day of January succeeding the rendition of judgment.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That all writs in debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, shall be returnable to Spring Term of the Superior Court, and shall be served at least thirty days (Sundays included) before the return day. If during the return term, the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court for his use, one tenth of the debt or demand (principal and interest) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or into Court for his use, one fifth of the residue and costs, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead at the said Spring Term; should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or into Court for his use, one half of the residue, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead: Provided however, the plaintiff if required shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter claim, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Court shall order a Jury at the same or subsequent Term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed to plead only upon the payment of one fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the Jury may find him indebted over and above the same: Provided further, that should the defendant fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case, the plaintiff shall be entitled to Judgment and execution for said instalment: Provided however, any debtor tendering or paying to his creditor on any debt contracted prior to the first day of May A. D. 1865, the one tenth of his indebtedness without a suit having been brought on the same, the said one tenth shall be entered as a credit on the evidences of said indebtedness, thereafter the remainder of said indebtedness shall not be sued on for twelve months after the payment or tender of said one tenth.

SEC. 7th. Be it further enacted, That so much of the ordinance of the Convention, passed on the 23d of June 1866, as shall come in conflict with this act, together with all other laws coming in conflict with the same, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the time elapsed or elapsing from the twentieth day of May, 1861, until the first day of January 1870, shall not be counted so as to bar actions, or suits, or to presume satisfaction or abandonment of rights.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

REMARKS OF MR. THORNTON,

OF WARREN,

In the Senate on Friday last, on the "Stay Law" and Mr. Speed's substitute.

Mr. Speaker, it is known to you that I have consumed just about as little of the time of this Senate as any Senator in this Chamber.

I should however, be recreant to the obligations imposed on me, if I did not ask the indulgence of the Senate, to enable me to submit a few remarks and only a few, on the question, now under consideration, which I regard as one of paramount importance.

It not conceded, it is certainly generally believed, that the present indebtedness of the people of North Carolina is such, that should there be an attempt to collect by creditors the result would be ruinous beyond all examples. An amount of suffering and distress would be produced thereby, unheard of in our State. I am one of those who have all abiding faith in the people. I have great confidence, in the industry, energy, and honesty of the people, and if time is allowed them they will bring all their industry, and energy to bear on their crippled, and limited resources, and in a few short years they will be enabled to meet many of their liabilities.—Something must be done for the relief of the people, or we are broken up—ruined. North Carolina is in the "slough of despond" and she must be brought out by wise and liberal legislation. She is prostrate, bleeding at every pore. In my judgment one of the most efficient means of accomplishing so happy a result, will be found in the passage of the substitute now under consideration. If then the men to whom North Carolina has entrusted the power of making her laws, shall well and truly look to her present and future prosperity; shall diligently seek to uphold her best interest, they should at once give to the people the relief so urgently demanded.

Standing here, Mr. Speaker, as the humble representative of an honorable, high minded and as patriotic a constituency as any man ever had; virtuous and intelligent, guided by my own native sense of justice, guided by my own convictions of what the exigencies of the country require, without claiming to possess more independence than other Senators, I am free to say, if you please, I am bold to say, that I intend to do here, or elsewhere, whatever I can to promote the safety, the honor and the welfare of North Carolina. I intend to do whatever I can, towards the preservation of the people of my State from this "besom of destruction," which is rapidly sweeping over our land. To stand by and see our best men immolated; our most useful citizens brought down to abject ruin, to beggary and want; to see their comfortable homes and handsome plantations swept away, and pass into the hands of unfeeling speculators, at ruinous prices, would evince the spirit of a spendthrift and a prodigal, and not that of a wise Legislator. The time has arrived when it becomes this Legislature, as a co-ordinate branch of the Government, to speak out boldly; to speak out fearlessly.

If, Mr. Speaker, you desire, as I am sure you do—as I know you do, the re-establishment of the prosperity of North Carolina,—if you desire to build up her fields of industry and her fields of enterprise,—if you desire to plant the standard of prosperity over Carolina's desponding sons, then I entreat you, Sir, I entreat you, Senators, that you give to them the relief they so much need; relief that will fill their hearts with joy and gratitude; relief, Mr. Speaker, that will make theirs, an ardent exultation. I only say, what every reflecting mind knows, that without relief our people will certainly emigrate from the old North State. Surely, Mr. Speaker, the men who forsook all, who relinquished all, and who stood by North Carolina in the darkest hours of her trials and sufferings; who stood by North Carolina like firm friends in her bloody struggle for nationality, deserve the little boon, the small favor this bill offers them. Our people are poor, very poor,—made so by the ruthless hand of war. The tale of suffering, misery and woe, is heard from the Roanoke to the French Broad. The cry has come up to you, Sir, that in portions of our State, the people are not only poor, but they are hungry and starving. They need and are entitled to relief. The Government has, by an exercise of might, destroyed the institution of slavery, thereby depriving the people of North Carolina of property amounting in value to more than two hundred millions of dollars.

This is the greatest disaster, the greatest calamity, the greatest misfortune that ever befell any people. Others may say what they please in favor of free labor, I regard the system as forced upon the South, as most abominable, most iniquitous, most infamous. It is the curse of our land. This added to our political troubles may well make our situation too horrible to contemplate. But I believe there is a way by which relief can be obtained, and that way is pointed out in the substitute now under discussion.

I plead not for repudiation. I want it not.—All I desire, all I ask for is justice, time, and proper indulgence. The people I represent will never repudiate, and should they fail to pay their debts, it will be from an utter inability on their part to do so. I am as much opposed to repudiation as any Senator on this floor.

I shall vote very cheerfully for the substitute, because it meets more fully the exigencies of the country. I vote for it because it affords more protection, more substantial relief to the people, than the original bill.

In conclusion, I have only to add, that I am willing to adopt any plan for the relief of the masses.

REMARKS OF

MR. CUNNINGHAM, OF PERSON,

In the Senate, on Friday, "on the Bill to Change the Jurisdiction of the Courts and the Pleadings Therein."

MR. SPEAKER.—I do not desire to consume unnecessarily the time of this body; but I feel bound to offer my views in regard to the measure before us. I am opposed to the substitute offered by the Senator from Pasquotank, but will vote for the bill as reported by the committee. It seems to me useless to discuss the point as to the propriety, or necessity, or even the constitutionality of this measure. It is obvious, that it is demanded by the whole country; everybody has made up his mind to it, and even the Judges are prepared to give it a chance, if it is a just compromise between debtor and creditor. The ordinance of the State Convention is radically defective as a relief measure, by making it almost necessary for all creditors to bring actions to the Spring courts of the present year, and thus involving the people of the State in a crushing burden of costs. I have heard it estimated that 50,000 suits would be commenced this Spring, and putting the costs of each at twenty dollars, we have $1,000,000 of costs alone, a terrible tax indeed for the benefit of relief! Sir, this deluge of litigation must be arrested in some way, and it seems to me that this is the first relief now demanded. I am in favor of the bill under consideration for several reasons, first, because it gives the debtor twelve months more time to pay.

The people cannot now pay a tenth of their indebtedness. But two crops have been made since the close of the war, and if these had been full ones, it would have taken nearly all to supply existing destitution, to refit farms with stock and implements, and to purchase the household articles, which were beginning to be so much needed. But the crops were short, and in many places not sufficient to bread the people and feed the stock, and great numbers have had to go in debt for the necessaries of life. Under these circumstances, no reasonable man can object to giving the people time to make one more crop before they can be forced to pay even a tenth. This bill, also, very justly, as I think, allows a debtor the privilege of preventing suits by paying within the prescribed time, the amount allowed to be collected. This is another important error in the existing law. For had debtors offered to pay the tenth of their obligations by the first of this year, creditors could have refused it, and, in many cases, would have done so, hoping, by the fears of costs, and the trouble and exposure of legal process to force their debtors to pay more. This bill, also, provides that small debts shall be put on the same footing with large ones. It recognizes the validity of contracts, looks to future payments, and gives the creditor the chance and the right to recover his just dues, as soon and as fast as the debtor is able to pay them.

Relief is demanded by the public calamities. It is due to an honest and devoted people, overwhelmed by losses, not resulting from their own extravagance, and it is due to the great cause of justice and public security. To put the country now at the mercy of speculators, is to insure demoralization, riots, bloodshed, repudiation and revolution; and no creditor who has a wise and just sense of his true interests, will object to any measure that is calculated to encourage industry, to inspire hope, and to protect society from anarchy.

But let this be our purpose; let us hold an even balance between honest creditors and honest and unfortunate debtors, steadily opposing all tendency to repudiation, inflexibly interposing to stay the tide of executions that threaten to sweep all the means of the State into the hands of extortioners, and determined to give to all men a chance to pay what they owe, and to receive what is their own.

For one, I shall never, under any circumstances, countenance any measure that looks to repudiation. This is spoliation of the worst kind; it is robbery, the taking from one what is justly his and giving to another. It is immoral, it is inexpedient, it is ruinous; it would disgrace us abroad, demoralize us at home, and open the way to utter lawlessness and anarchy.

On the other hand, honor, honesty and every consideration of self interest demand a stay, a temporary stay in the forced collection of debts. No honest class or interest can lose by it, and the extraordinary circumstances of the country, the universal and unparalelled sufferings and losses of a devoted people, and the causes of their calamities would justify such measures in the eyes of all the world.

His heart is harder than the nether mill-stone, who could object to such relief, fairly designed, and our self protection as a people, as an organized society, demands it. If it be framed on the principle discussed, we need not fear the action of the Supreme Court. That body is composed of men, of Christian men and statesmen, as well as lawyers. They would be bold and reckless men indeed, if they were to pull down a breakwater designed only to prevent universal ruin; and I have no doubt but that their desire is to see the debtor saved by means that do not strike at the root of honesty, and give all the advantage to one class of the community.

Mr. Speaker, I believe the measure before us will meet the approval of all thoughtful and honest men; and for one, I am willing to labor here day and night till it is passed; and I call on Senators to come to the work in a spirit of compromise to remember that every day's delay is adding thousands and thousands to the public burdens, and endeavor immediately to unite on a plan that will arrest the tide of ruin setting in, restore confidence, and inspire hope, in every class of our unfortunate people.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

JOHNNY REB'S WIFE.—Col. Farrar will deliver his last Lecture in the Commons Hall to-night. The subject, "Johnny Reb's Wife," will doubtless attract a crowd.

CITY MATTERS.—Mayor Haywood organized Fire Company No. 2 on Saturday night, the 9th inst., by the election of the following officers:

Captain, John Maguire; Ass't Foreman, W. S. Sparks; Secretary, J. B. Jordan; Treasurer, Phil Thiem.

The following Committee on By-Laws were appointed by the Captain, to report at some future meeting of the Company:

John Bagwell, J. J. Guthrie, J. B. Jordan, Wm. Simpson, A. S. Bagwell.

The Company is composed entirely of volunteers, who appear to take great interest in it.—No. 1 will soon be organized, as but few volunteers are wanting to make up the Company.—It is hoped the requisite number will make early application to the Constables to have their names recorded, and avoid a draft. The Hook and Ladder Company was organized several days ago. The Company consists entirely of volunteers.

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS!—Those young gentlemen who volunteered last summer to assist the ladies of the Memorial Association, when their services should be needed, are notified, that the Cemetery ground is now in readiness, and that the ladies now invite all who can, and are willing, to give what assistance they can, and as soon as possible.

R. D. Whitley, Esq., Commoner from Mecklenburg, has been absent from his seat for some days, detained at home by the severe illness of a member of his family.

APPOINTMENT.—At the last meeting of the Literary Board, Gen. Walter Gwynn was appointed Agent of the Swamp Lands belonging to the Literary Fund of the State, to aid in making sales of the same. He will, in a few days, visit Onslow and Jones counties, with a view to this object. The Board hopes by this means to make such disposition of the Lands, as will render them profitable in reviving the Common Schools. Gen. Gwynn's knowledge of these Lands, will enable him to bring them properly before the public.

THE JOHNSTON WILL CASE.—In addition to the eminent counsel employed in the important will case now on trial at Edenton, which we have already named, we have since learned that Gov. Bragg, of this city, and Wm. Eaton, jr., of Warren, are also employed. We have also seen the name of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, mentioned in the papers as one of the counsel. Years have elapsed, since in this State, so many eminent lawyers have been employed in one case.

A GOOD CROP WITH A SMALL FORCE.—Dr. J. P. Redding, of Bay River, with eight hands and two mules, made 55 bales of cotton, 250 barrels of corn, and between three and four thousand bushels of potatoes during the past season.

This is about the largest crop we have ever known to be made with so small a force, and speaks equally well for the land and Dr. Redding.—New. Jour. of Commerce.

We know Dr. Redding and have some knowledge of the lands on Bay River. There are thousands of acres of such lands in our Eastern counties. Such cropping as the above, ought to convince North Carolinians at least, they need not go to the South or West in search of good lands. What we need is the proper energy and the true working spirit. If we had an addition of 10,000 skillful, industrious, agricultural laborers from the North or from Holland, Scotland and Ireland in that section, with means to buy small tracts and improve them, Eastern North Carolina could be made the garden spot of the United States.

NORTH CAROLINA FISHERIES.—The most extensive preparations have been made for working the important fishers in the waters of Albemarle and Currituck Sounds and the contributing streams: and if the season proves propitious we may confidently expect as large a yield this spring as that of any former year. Heavy amounts have been spent by the North Carolina fishermen in providing seines, boats, &c., and the "gill nett" men particularly muster very numerous this season.—Norfolk Day Book.

We are glad to witness this sign of life in the North East counties. The fisheries of that region are invaluable, and if our people in that section can command the means to refit and work them, a large amount of greenbacks in that section will be the result.

ARRESTED BY THE U. S. MARSHAL.—Mr. Joel Kinsey, of Tuscarora, was arrested by U. S. Marshal Kehoe, on Tuesday last, on the charge of distilling spirituous liquors without a license. He was admitted to bail in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. District Court, to be held here on the 4th Monday of April next.—New. Com.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Feb. 7, 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Charlotte may be set down, undoubtedly, as one of the growing towns of North Carolina. There is an air of thriftiness here, that refreshes one whose travels take him through districts that are painfully dull. There is quite a trade in cotton, and the very great trade in corn makes one think of Egypt, and Joseph and his brethren, with one variation however in the story, namely: the price of grain. How people are to stand up to even the present price, is a problem. Stanly, Union and other counties raised little or no corn last year, and certainly their citizens deserve the sympathy of every good man. The streets are busy with teams, that come from considerable distances to buy corn. It requires but little foresight to see the distress that must prevail long before the next crop. Yet, borrowing trouble, is a poor investment. Very few people starve in this country for want of bread.

LABOR.

Judging from present appearances, this country is likely to be drained of its labor.—Quite a number of men are here, and over the country, hiring hands to go to Mississippi, to work the cotton lands. The government pays the transportation, I learn, and the planters give good wages, and with these inducements, large numbers are going. I learn there are about two hundred awaiting to-morrow's train.

STAY LAW.

I have seen a man from Mississippi who represents his State as looking up, and he and others attribute the prosperity, to the stand that State has taken against stay laws. If you ask for the logic of the case, you get two answers. 1st. Their prosperity is the smile of Providence upon honesty; for a contract is a transaction between one man and another, and nothing but liquidation can make justice complete—what relieves one party, embarrasses the other.

2d. If you want to induce a man to start up afresh, and work like a beaver, throw him on his back. No man ever got a whipping without getting with it, a good circulation. Downright hardship, makes a man determine to work, if there is any work in him.

"THE LAND WE LOVE."

Gen. D. H. Hill is here, in full force. Twelve thousand copies of The Land we Love, are printed every month. Every employee in the office is a native North Carolinian, and the paper on which the Magazine is printed, is made in this State. But the circulation of this paper, furnishes a nut. I find it hard to crack, namely this: it has a larger circulation in Pa., than in Va.

"HOTELS."

Charlotte is a little like Raleigh used to be, in the matter of Hotels; it needs reconstruction.—The Mansion House is a good house—no men can be more accommodating than the Messrs. Bryant, the proprietors, but somehow the whole matter of house-keeping is looking up, since the war closed, and we have come to feel that a general freshening up is needed everywhere. New paint, new furniture, new everything is needed.

The "Moody House," close to the Depot, "run" by Mr. Bethune is new, though very much retired. No man will starve at either house. But after hearing the people here say, "the city of Charlotte," one naturally looks around him for a much larger hotel than either or both put together. The Exchange still keeps the palm.

"GAS."

Gas is ten dollars in Charlotte. People who are willing to pay such a price for mere Gas, ought never to show their bills, but keep the fact from their friends. However, this would reflect upon our Legislature, for this is what that honorable body pays for the same commodity.

"MARKET HOUSE."

One of the most bewildering facts about this thrifty city is the lack of a market house. One would infer from this that Charlotte is a cheap place to live in. Far from it. Food is high, and the want of a market only makes it all the higher. Great Charlotte, the termini of five Railroads, the city of indomitable perseverence, and no market house, is incredible.

"WOOLEN GOODS."

It does a Southern man good to visit the "Rock Island Factory." The season of heavy goods being nearly over, the Factory is now engaged in making only the lighter fabrics for spring and summer use, and, beyond doubt, they are very handsome. Large quantities of the cloth of the establishment are sold in Baltimore.

"FEMALE SEMINARIES."

The extensive buildings of the "Charlotte Military Institute" have lately been converted into a Female College, under the presidency of Rev. Mr. Stacy, of the S. C. Conference. There is room for a very large number of pupils.

The "Charlotte Female Institute," under the presidency of Rev. R. Burwell and son, enjoys a fine reputation and prosperity. A better school and home for a young lady would not easily be found among the very large number of schools in N. C.

You may hear from me again, but the sweeping report of our able State Geologist will render my feeble geological facts insipid. Still, such readable facts as I can gather, about our dear, but languishing old commonwealth, you shall be welcome to. ITINERANT.

Our Monday Morning Dispatches.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.

In the Senate a motion to reconsider the vote against the bankrupt bill was carried.

After an Executive session, the death of Henry Grider, of Kentucky, was announced. Mr. Davis pronounced a eulogy and the Senate adjourned.

The House resumed the consideration of the Stevens' bill. Mr. Banks took the floor. He said that he believed the States lately in rebellion were still States, but may be regarded in a state of siege. He would not object to placing them under martial law. But the bill went further—establishing a government responsible neither to Congress, nor the people, but to a commander of the army. Another objection is that there is not a letter or a line looking to the establishment of any other than military governments.

Mr. Ashley rose to a question of order, and called up the Nebraska Veto, and the Senate's action thereon.

The message was read and Mr. Ashley moved the previous question, and the bill passed by a vote of 120 to 44. Davis and Raymond voting nay.

The Stevens bill was resumed. Mr. Raymond said that it was clear that there was not unanimity enough to secure the effectiveness of the measure. None of the propositions before the House had sufficient friends to enforce them, even if passed. The time has arrived for Congress to concert some measure which would secure effectual unanimity and command the support of every department of the government.—He proposed that the whole matter be referred to a Committee of five or seven, of which Mr. Stevens should be Chairman, to report a bill by Wednesday, for the protection of life and liberty in the South, and for the speedy re-admission of these States.

In the course of a long debate, Mr. Shellabarger said that the New Orleans Riot Committee would on Monday next present a bill for the civil organization of that State.

Mr. Raymond was glad to hear it.

Mr. Hise announced the death of Henry Grider, of Kentucky. Appropriate resolutions were passed and the House adjourned.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.

President Johnson called upon Geo. Peabody as a private citizen. In the course of conversation he paid that gentleman a high compliment, for his magnificent gift in behalf of the educational interest of the South. Mr. Peabody replying, said that he had some knowledge of the official cares bearing upon the Executive, and appreciated his efforts to restore the lately rebellious States to their full relations to the Federal Government. Alluding to his residence in England, he said there was a more friendly feeling among the people and the government of that country than heretofore.

Hon. Henry Grider, of Kentucky, whose death was announced to-day, served in the war of 1812, under General Shelby. Has served in both Houses of the Kentucky Legislature, and nine years in Congress. He was a member of the Reconstruction Committee and was untiring in kindly offices for the people of the unfortunate States.

The National Democratic Committee met to-day at the National Hotel, with a view to the election of delegates to conventions of each State, to consider the state of the country. A proposition of the Pensylvania Convention to hold a National Convention at Harrisburg on May 21st was favorably entertained. Its adoption is probable, with suggestions to State Committees to order the election of delegates, who may act in an emergency.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.

The New Orleans riot committee will report to-morrow, condemning Mayor Monroe, and censuring the President. They say the loyal people are not protected, and will in connection report a bill appointing a Governor and Council, under whom the State can organize. Only loyalists, without regard to color, will be allowed to vote.

Orphans of Confederate Soldiers.

REFERENCES:

"COLUMBIA, Oct. 12, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentleman of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.

WADE HAMPTON."

"I concur with Gen. Hampton in commending the benevolent enterprise of Miss Buie to the favor and patronage of the generous, liberal and philanthropic. Her life thus far has been devoted to acts of kindness and charity, and she merits success in her undertaking.

J. L. ORR, Governor."

"STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, COLUMBIA, October 26, 1866.

Miss BUIE:—I approve of your suggestion to appoint Mr. D. L. McKay, of Charleston, as Treasurer, to receive the funds and hold them for the Female School you are interesting yourself to establish for the education of orphan girls. He is a gentleman of high character, great moral worth, and enjoys the confidence of the public

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. L. ORR."

Mr. McKay accepts the office. All funds sent to South Carolina must be sent to him.

MARY ANN BUIE.

"THE PEOPLE'S NATIONAL BANK, Charleston, S. C., Jan. 8, 1867.

DEAR Miss BUIE:—It will afford me much pleasure to serve as Treasurer of the School in Columbia, S. C. for educating Soldiers' Orphans. You have my best wishes in the undertaking.—With regard and esteem,

Yours truly,

D. L. McKAY,

President People's National Bank."

Miss Buie begs the co-operation of all persons to aid her in this enterprise to educate and make good and useful thousands. All donations must be paid to the Treasurers appointed by the two Governors.—Gov. Worth says:

"You may rely on my co-operation. You ask me to appoint some suitable persons as Treasurers. I suggest Geo. W. Mordecai, of Raleigh; Wm. A. Wright of Wilmington; Philip A. Wiley, of Fayetteville; John D. Whitford, Newberne; Jesse H Lindsay, Greensboro'; D. A. Davis, Salisbury; I. G. Lash, Salem; R. F. Swinson, Statesville; L. W. Dewry, Charlotte; Gen. Robert Vance, Asheville. If other names are desired in other localities, I will designate them. May you be successful in this, the noblest charity in the use of the benevolence to which you have devoted your life.

Yours very respectfully and truly,

JONATHAN WORTH,

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For the speedy and certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers; indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertilizer of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only earthly dependence.

The "Etna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

HILLSBORO' MILITARY ACADEMY.

THIS well known and popular Institution is once more in successful operation, and is prepared for the reception of Cadets at any time.—It is under the direction of a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a

Professor of the Virginia
MILITARY INSTITUTE,

and a colleague of

STONEWALL JACKSON.

The course of the Institution is that of the Virginia Military Institute, and is such as to make the Academy a great

POLYTECHNIC SCHOOL.

A school of theoretical and applied science, in which Languages and Literature also receive a due share of attention. The discipline and instructions are on a Complete Military Basis.

The Faculty is for the present organized as follows:

Superintendent and Professor of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy, and instructor of Infantry and Cavalry tactics, GEN. R. E. COLSTON, late Professor of French, and of Military History, Strategy and Political Economy at the Virginia Military Institute, and late Brig. General C. S. A.

Until the appointment of additional Professors, Gen. Colston takes charge of the Department of French and English studies and Belles Lettres.

Professor of Natural and Experimental Philosophy, Ordnance, Gunnery and instructor of Artillery tactics, Major D. TRUEHEART, Graduate of the Virginia Military Institute in 1850—afterwards Assistant Professor of the Va. Military Institute—attached to the United States Coast Survey—late Major and Chief of Artillery in the C. S. Army.

Professor of Mathematics, Civil and Military Engineering, Architecture, Topographical and Industrial Drawing, and Assistant Instructor of Infantry tactics, Maj. W. A. OBENCHAIN, "first distinguished Graduate," of his Class in the Virginia Military Institute, and for efficient and meritorious services during the war, promoted Captain of Engineers in the late C. S. Army

Professor of Chemistry, Agricultural Chemistry, Geology and Mineralogy, Col. LEWELLYN HOXTON, "Distinguished graduate" of West Point Military Academy, and late Chief of Artillery to Hardee's Corps.

Professor of Latin, French, Ethics and Belles Lettres, to be appointed shortly.

Surgeons Drs. E. & W. S. STRUDWICK.

New appointments will be made, and the Chairs now filled will be subdivided as soon as the number of Cadets makes it desirable.

Applicants for Professorships must be gentlemen of Scientific and Military education, who have served in the field

Candidates for admission as Cadets are advised to come without delay. Until the 1st. of February next, all those Cadets present at the Academy, will be pushed forward in their studies irrespective of classes, so as to enable them, at that time, to enter the most advanced classes for which they may be found qualified.

By coming at once they may gain an entire year in the term of their education.

REMARKS.

1. The location of this College is in one of the most pleasant and cultivated towns in North Carolina, long celebrated for its healthfulness.

2. The Principals assure the public that no pains will be spared to render the institution all that parents and guardians could desire it to be—a suitable place for the education of their daughters and wards.

3. In all of its appointments they intend to make it rank with the foremost colleges of our land. They themselves are not novices in this department of labor, but have had ample experience in teaching, and in conducting such enterprises.

4. Pupils will be allowed to attend such places of worship on Sabbath as their parents or guardians may prescribe. One of the teachers will always accompany young ladies to the house of worship.

5. Debts cannot be contracted by the pupils without permission from parents or guardians.

6. Every sleeping room will be supplied with fuel and be carpeted.

7. Pupils must furnish their own towels, and one pair of sheets each, and have their clothing well marked.

PAYMENT:—One half in advance, the other half at the close of the Session.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate reseration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
